ADVISOR

"BIG BOY" GRIMM

From "ex-Guerrein Photographer" in May to the "swivel chair caper" in March, we the yearbook staff never said die. We survived disputes by the "who's who gang" and the "vo-tech clan." Even when our room was threatened we managed to remain somewhat subdued. When the senior class play and term papers preoccupied us, we still found it possible to remain confident. When the company sent us letters informing us that we were 51 days late, we managed to hold back our tears. When the picture studio ruined our pictures, when the film broke in the camera, when we had no pictures we managed to control our frustrated arms. Despite all that trouble, despite all that work, despite all those long lonely Saturdays spent at school, despite all those missed suppers – "we" the "yearbook staff" – survived.

Best wishes

A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

As editor of the 1979 Resonator, I have learned that it takes much more than a good staff to produce a good yearbook. There must also be cooperation of the students, faculty, and administration. With their help we have come through many difficult situations and problems which have arisen.

I would also like to take this time to thank two very loyal staff members, Jenny Angelo and Chris Hughes, who sacrificed study halls, weekends, and all their spare time into the production of this book. With these thoughts in mind, I would like to present to you the 1979 Resonator.

The 1978 Blue Devil Volleyball Team turned in the best record at CSHS in the short, six year history of the sport. Coach Rick Welker guided the team to a 5-2 league record and a 7-3 record overall. The '78 season was highlighted when the Blue Devils knocked off perennial powerhouse Maplewood, and then proceeded to the District 10 semi-finals. Unfortunately, the team fell one match short of a trip to the state tournaments. Mark Mateja, probably the league's top spiker, was named to the All-County first team. Tim Christie was named to the second team, and Max Baer received honorable mention.

Although their record may not appear too impressive, the CSHS girl's volleyball team worked hard together. Most of their losses were the result of very close games. Consequently, the girls were involved in some exciting games and matches. Those seniors who played on the 1978 team and will play on the 1979 squad are Lorie Acker, Barb Newark, Lori Powell, and Linda Shull.

DEVILS REACH PLAYOFFS

JIM DAILEY – Coach

Early in April 1978 the Blue Devil baseball team began its season with a powerful 15-3 win over Seneca. This win foreshadowed a season that would lead the Devils to the playoffs. On a hot dry day in June, the Devils lost to Meadville in the District-10 playoffs. However, the Devils could boast about a 14-3 overall league record. Jamey Gagé was one of the Devils who made All County All-Star. Jamey pitched two straight no hitters and acquired a 6-0 league pitching record highlighted by a .84 ERA. Jim Bufalino, who batted .326 during the season, contributed to Devil highlights by hitting a grand slam against Maplewood to bring in an individual 9 RBI's in one game. Ron Weidner, a tough defensive catcher, was also among those of the Devils who was chosen as an All-Star. These and many other great individual performances in union with admirable teamwork combined to form the awesome Devil attack.

The 1978 Blue Devil softball team began its short season in May by taking on Conneaut Valley on a clear, hot, spring day. From that day on, the season seemed to progress quickly. Although the girls won few games, they feel the season was great. They competed in games with fields covered with a film of mud, fields made rough with stones, and fields dry and dusty under a scorching, near-summer sun. Towards the end of the season, the girls spent a long hot day at a Cochranton tournament. Despite sometimes discouraging losses, the season was not played for nothing as memories of its existence linger on.

The 1978 football season marked the beginning of a new era. Although the team finished with an unimpressive 1-6-2 record, many positive things were accomplished. Stressing fundamentals, hard work, and a proper attitude, new head coach Scott McKissock laid the foundation for a winning program. Losing just nine seniors from a squad of thirty-six, McKissock is anxious to begin his second season at the helm and add a new dimension to CSHS – a winning football program!

JUNIOR HIGH FOOTBALL

The Junior High football team was coached by Mr. Corle and Mr. Ellis. This year the team faired well in posting a 3-5 league record. Many 8th and 9th grade boys sacrificed time and worked hours out on the football field despite sometimes foul weather conditions.

Row 1: Greg Wolfe, Jeff Bideaux, Jim Flynn, Tim Brown, Dan Powell, Trace Brown, Randy White. Row 2: Todd Daughenbaugh, Mike Darling, Bob Melvin, Ron Dunlap, Scott Carter, Jay Mook, Glenn Hayes, Kevin Landers. Although the Varsity wrestling team posted an unimpressive record of 3-13, the matmen provided much excitement for SPA fans. Good individual performances by Eric Guerrein (13-6), John Tau (11-6-1), and Jeff Ringer (10-9) overshadowed a losing season for the team. Eric Guerrein, who was team captain, had an outstanding year with 57 team points. Although losing 8 seniors, Coach Nowakowski is optimistic with 13 freshmen returning in 1979-1980. While the Varsity team lost a majority of their matches, the J.V. team, coached by Mr. Marvin, did an excellent job, posting a 9-5 slate.

The 1978 CSHS golf team downed its usual impressive record of past years by finishing the season with a 5-11 overall record. However, most of the final scores of the matches were very close, giving the team what may be considered a deceptive record. The team was led by Coach Bill Putney. Those playing their last matches for CSHS were seniors Joe Ledrick, Andy Newell, Jim Nuss, and David Ross.

DEVILS HAVE LATE SURGE

The first half of the 78-79 Devil basketball season closed with pessimism as the Devils had acquired a 1-5 league record. However 1979 arrived with what appeared to be a totally different Devil team. After January 9, excitement grew when the Devils won 4 out of their next 5 games. As a result, the gym filled with excitement when the league leading Maplewood Tigers came to town. The game was tight all the way through. However, the Devils fell to defeat by two points in the final seconds of play. After 2 more straight wins, the Devils became an outside shot for the playoffs. On February 9, the Devils and fans of CSHS travelled to Conneaut Valley taking with them the Devil battlecry – "Spa is back!" After a highly emotional game that went into overtime, the Devils emerged victorious. Four days later, the Devils took on the tough Lakeview Sailors. The Devils ripped the Sailors apart both mentally and phyiscally. Shouts of "Go home redhead!" (referring to a Sailor player that CSHS fans felt played "dirty ball") and "Go Home Sailors!" filled the gym.

JV SQUAD

This year the Junior Varsity basketball team under the guidance of Mr. Stauffer produced an impressive 17-4 league record. They were consistently impressive throughout the season, making many fine "come-from-behind" victories. While behind 16-1 at Conneaut Valley in the first quarter, the JV squad bounced back quickly and amazed everyone with a scoreboard reading of 19-16 in the Devil's favor. The JV Devils also turned out winning streaks ranging from 6 to 8 games. With the kind of performance by the JV squad, hopes for future league contention appear around the corner.

Since the seasons overlap, girl's basketball often lies in the shadows of varsity football. Nevertheless, the CSHS Devils remained determined and loyal to their sport. They remained consistent in the won-lost column, and competed in some very exciting games. The outlook for the future looks good since the team will be losing only two seniors. Individual recognition should be given to senior Cheryl Grinnell who had a fantastic season. Corinne Armel was the other senior who played for the Devil dribblers for the last time. These girl's and the rest of the team deserve recognition for a season well played.

Like the colorguard, the CSHS majorettes add a special touch to the marching band. They perform many fancy routines and as a result they add a touch of creativity in introducing the marching band following them. But the majorettes activities extends beyond the band, for they performed on stage during Homecoming festivities.

SENIOR HIGH CHORUS

The year of 1978 saw the chorus in both senior and junior high schools take a very active role in extra-curricular activities. Under the supervision of Miss Mary Lynn Peters, the choruses performed in a variety of situations. Performances for the public, the school, and for patients at the San Rosario Nursing Home were among several Yuletide concerts. The traditional caroling was as well on the agenda. With the new year came the end of the festive holiday program of music and the beginning of the preparations for the annual spring concert. Returning to the healm of choral director was Mr. Nancy Jo Ralph. Hopes of collaboration-tpye performance by Penncrest area schools were unsuccessful due to various situations at other schools.

JUNIOR HIGH CHORUS

Under Miss Peter's supervision, four Cambridge students attended the District Festival in Corry. Wendy Birchard and Janet Bidwell represented the female contingent while Joe Ledrick and Scott Dunton sang tenor and bass parts respectively. A depressive situation did put a damper on the Spa quintet's success. Bidwell and Ledrick were unable to perform competitively due to sickness, but respectful placings by Dunton and Birchard upheld Cambridge's representation.

STUDENT SENATE

Under the direction of Mr. Welker, the Student Senate planned, prepared and presented the annual Homecoming assembly. At Christmas time the group decorated the school, sponsored a door decorating contest, and presented the film "Smokey and the Bandit." Throughout the sports year, they planned and sponsored record dances after games. Also on their list of accomplishments is the starting of an annual carnation sale for Valentine's Day. Branching off of the Student Senate is the Student Forum. The Student Forum consists of carefully selected students who meet with other forums nearby to get legislation passed through the school district and the state. This year's forum consisted of Joe Ledrick, Valerie Hanks, Sue Glenn, and Joanne Duda. Although the Student Senate appears to be a large group, the work is usually done by a willing few.

LIBRARY AIDES

The library aides assist Mrs. Conti in performing the duties of a librarian. The aides perform such tasks as shelving books, arranging cards in the card catalog, and helping students find books. The aides are under the direction of Mrs. Conti.

Row 1: Mary Tucci, and Tina Willey. Row 2: Heidi Bordon, and Christine Wiley.

NHS

National Honor Society consists of any student from grade 10 through 12 who agrees to maintain a high scholastic average during his high school career. In order to qualify for acceptance into NHS, one must maintain at least a B average, be actively involved in school functions, and be taking at least four major subjects during the year. After having met these qualifications, the student must then be accepted by the department heads of the school. At graduation, those seniors of NHS receive a gold tassel to be worn with their caps.

TERRY BURGER
Editor

The purpose of the "Pitchfork" staff is to keep students informed as to what is going on in the school. They report and describe the activities of various clubs. In addition, they inform students on what is happening in the sports sector at CSHS. They review the action of the games and report on any highlights that may have occured. This year the "Pitchfork" was personalized with the addition of articles on feature personalities and feature athletes of the issue.

However, like the yearbook staff, the newspaper staff is not without their problems. They also rush to meet deadlines in order to put out a paper in an attempt to please its readers.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

This year the basketball season brought conflict to the CSHS cheerleaders. Dissension among some of the cheerleaders and some of the basketball players threatened a breakup of the cheerleaders. Strong rumors were that certain cheerleaders were refusing to cheer for the basketball team. But as things always seem to work out, the cheerleaders remained loyal to the Devil basketball team. As the season progressed, the turmoil faded and the spirit grew. The spirit and fidelity became even greater as the Devil hoopers surged toward a playoff position.

Despite the previously mentioned conflict, the cheerleaders did much to boost school spirit throughout the year. It seemed like one could always see a cheerleader painting a large sign for the next game. The cheerleaders are also responsible for the preparation and presentation of many of the pep rallies held throughout the year.

J.V. CHEERLEADERS

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders do much to spark enthusiasm for the JV basketball team. Before a game one always sees the JV cheerleaders laughing together as they practice for the next game. During the game they are always prepared to lead cheers in order to spark the boys to victory.

JUNIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS

Often one is unaware of the doings of the Junior High cheerleaders. The group is composed of seventh and eighth graders who devote their time to cheering for the Junior High basketball team.

PEP CLUB

The pep club is a group of people who put all their Devil spirit into a group effort for maximum output. They try to sit near each other during games in order to achieve such heightened spirit. The group consists of students, cheerleaders, and even players. This year the club sold pep hats to many students. The hats were worn at games or during school before a game to show the team that people were behind them. However, in actuality, the CSHS pep club is really only those devoted fans who try to be at every game to help lead the Devils to victory.

TRI-HI-Y

The Tri-Hi-Y is made up of any girl from grade 9 to 12. This year the THY remained rather quiet in the club sector at CSHS. Most of their accomplishments came in the first half of the year. In October they shared with the Key Club the task of planning and presenting the Homecoming Dance. In addition they sold Blue Devil spirit buttons with the intent to boost school spirit during football season.

Row 1: Barb Newark, Brenda Kasbee, Brenda Prusia, Harriet Pilarczyk, Norma Edminister. Row 2: Pam May, Linda Roudybush, Lynette Prusia, Anna Johnston, Cheryl Grinnell. KEY CLUB

Under the fiery leadership of its president Tim Christie, the Key Club began its influence on the school year early. In an attempt to reincarnate the seemingly defunct school spirit before Homecoming, the Key Club went into action and sponsored Hat Day. As a result, the Friday before Homecoming turned out to be one of the most unique days of the school year. Furthermore, the Key Club co-sponsored the Homecoming Dance with the THY. At time of this publication, tickets to a Steeler versus CSHS Faculty basketball game to be held on March 7th were being sold by the Key Club.

CAMERA CREW

Front: John Fulton, Jim Nuss, and Mike Flynn. Back: Tim Reibel, and Bob Flynn.

The camera crew plays an important role in CSHS. Their duties range from benefitting a teacher to benefitting a coach. For teachers, the crew videotapes programs from educational broadcasts and plays these tapes over for the teachers. This makes it easier for a teacher to show the same program to different classes at a time most convenient to him. Furthermore, the camera crew assists the varsity football and varsity basketball coaches. During the games, the crew keeps a camera going to videotape the action for the coaches to view later. Such assistance adds an extra visual aid to coaches. Serving for the crew for their last time are seniors Jim Nuss and Bob Flynn, who is head of the crew.

MODEL LEGISLATURE

The CSHS members of Model Legislature represent a delegation to a mock Pennsylvania General Assembly. Everyone in the group plays the role of either a representative or a senator. Over the year meetings of those delegations in eastern Pa. meet at the same time that those delegations from western Pa. meet. During these meetings, the members learn to write and present bills of legislation. Finally, in April the delegations from all over the state meet in the Capital building at Harrisburg to present and debate legislation. Model Legislature is an excellant way to gain experience in the ways of government, the writing of bills, the art of debate and the correct form of Robert's Rules.

ASTRONOMY CLUB

The Astronomy club consists of a group of students who share an interest in the general field of astronomy. Every so often they will meet at Tom Boyko's in order to observe the stars through a detailed telescope. However, the club plans to purchase a small telescope for their own use. Last year during May, the club grouped together for a trip to the Buhl Planetarium in Pittsburgh.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The photography club is composed of a small group of students interested in photography. Most of the members own cameras. As a group, they share and compare various pictures they take. They also experiment with special effects involving the use of the camera or the methods of developing. The club was organized this year and it operates in a very liberal fashion.

THE SENIOR CLASS PRESENTS "DEADLY ERNEST"

6:30, Friday evening, November 17, 1978. Inside the cafeteria near a table with bottles of makeup, an actor sits obediently for makeup. Several players pace nervously around the table, others sit quietly looking at playbooks, and some laugh nervously. Mr. Montgomery, the director, observes the activity.

8:15, later that evening. The sound of the curtain opening produced a sense of unreality to the players that stood quietly behind the background on the stage.

The play delt with a one Henry Gilcrest. While depressed one night, Henry is told by a bum (bumpus) that he will pay a man by the name of Ernest to exterminate Henry. However, Henry later changes his mind and finds himself in an escape from death. Finally the play ends in laughter when Henry learns that he has been conned.

10:15. The stage turns to raucous as the players toss their hats and yell in success. Despite the nervousness they had experienced earlier, they all anxiously agreed with the statement: "We wanna do it again!"

On Wednesday, November 22, the day before Thanksgiving, the players presented the play to the student body. As a result, unfamiliar looking people with strange mustaches, sideburns and gray hair were seen that day in school.

Flashbacks 1978
HOMECOMING

There was a solemn air hanging over the vast auditorium during 5th period on Wednesday, October 4, 1978. Near the front of the stage was huddled a small group of people possessing a countenance of guilt. They were obediently listening to Student Senate Advisor, Mr. Welker. On the stage was a half painted cardboard background. There was a problem – it was a little more than a week before Homecoming and the background for the event was incomplete. Progress was slow due to a schism among those who volunteered to make the background. Consequently, Mr. Welker had to take a stand in an attempt to end the discord . . .

1978 CSHS Homecoming Queen
MARTHA HENRY

Friday, October 6, 1978 – earlier disarray folds to cooperation as "Hat Day" brings a sense of closeness to the school. Now the painters laugh as they paint over the Kamikaze planes, UFO's, and sinking ships that were surreptitiously painted in as part of the background. Furthermore a pep rally is held. The gym fills with excitement brought on by the success of "Hat Day." But the intense yelling and cheering turns to silence as everyone in the gym listens closely to learn this year's Homecoming candidates. For the first time ever, the announcing of the candidates is being revealed to the whole school at the same time instead of at the usual bonfire held at night. Sue Glenn, the Student Senate president, slowly announces the five choices of the football team as: Teresa Christie, Martha Henry, Colleen O'Conner, Sally Schmidt, and Sonya Troyer.

Friday, October 12, 1978 – Homecoming day. Third period the auditorium was quiet and lonely, and one could feel the excitement lying dormant within its vastness. A shortened sixth period went quickly. After everyone had returned to their homerooms, Mr. Adair began to announce when each grade could advance to the auditorium. Finally the members of the school situated inside the auditorium, hidden away from the ugly rain outside . . .

The crowd is quiet as Joe Phillips softly sings "Only Fools Rush In." The lighting is slight. The formally dressed and understandably nervous candidates sit still in their chairs. Portions of the Hawaiian background glisten under the colored lights . . .

The excitement grew as the cheerleaders, majorettes, and others performed before the audience. Later a deathlike silence overcame the auditorium as Sue Glenn announced Teresa Christie as the 1978 Maid of Honor. After the cheers for Teresa died down, the tension within the auditorium mounted. Sue Glenn was handed the final envelope and she began to open it over the microphone. She then spoke. "The 1978 CSHS Homecoming Queen is – Martha Henry!" The tension of the crowd is relieved in the form of cheers. Slowly everyone stands as Martha Henry, smiling intensely, is escorted by Mike Bernoski around the auditorium. Minutes later the indoor festivities end.

It was almost 10:00 later that evening when students happily entered the school for the Homecoming Dance. The Blue Devils had just beaten the Conneaut Lake Indians 28-0 in the Homecoming football game. It was the Devil's best game of the season and it came at an appropriate time.

Monday, October 15, 1978. The weekend pushes Homecoming 1978 into the past. The excitement of something to come has ended. A new day and a new week has started. Homecoming 1978 is gone forever – its existence living only in the memories of those who experienced it.

HAT DAY SPARKS SPIRIT

In an effort to boost school morale and spirit before Homecoming, the Key Club sponsored a "hat day" to all students of CSHS. All one had to do to participate in "hat day" was, of course, to wear a hat. As a result, on Friday October 6, 1978, more than ¾'s of the students and teachers of the school had hats atop their heads.

This "hat day" just happened to occur on the day of the Military Aptitude Battery Test for all senior boys. Looking in the designated test room, all one could see were boys absorbed in intense concentration, diligently taking the test. Meanwhile, in the front of the room stood a perplexed military man, looking at the boys before him dressed in sunhats and bonnets. As one of the boys later commented: "The sergeant was looking for 'a few good men' "

In the pep rally that followed later in the day, prizes were awarded for the best hats. Frannie Gray received first place honors for his hat that contained antlers. In addition, a list of those who failed to wear hats was read off for all to hear.

The yearbook staff appreciates the patience endured by the janitors during the time which the yearbook staff spent in preparing the yearbook. Without the janitors there to open the doors to rooms the staff needed to use, completion of the yearbook would have been more of a problem than it already was. Once again, their patience took one more worry off of the staff's long list of problems.

CLASS OF '79

Eric Guerrein, president

Valerie Hanks, vice-president

Kathy Newman, secretary

Kay Dunton, treasurer

Flowers: Sweet Heart roses and Baby's Breath

Motto: Time never stops nor shall we.

Colors: Light blue and dark blue

I REMEMBER . . .

LORIE ACKER: BOW awards, Zulus, popsicles, Hindu Scrabble, going to Ohio, and all of my very special friends.

CARLA ANDREWS: When the Featherless Fiend, Bonnie, the Clydes, and # 1 Sidekick went for a ride in the Blue Deluxe and nearly massacred the entire Edinboro Campus along with the GE building. I'll miss the long "O's".

JENNY ANGELO: The acrid taste of burning sulfur; lonely Edinboro at 75⁰; 12:30 AM insanity to "Greased Lightning" with 7 people crowded in Joe's Belair after "Heaven Can Wait"; Buff and Nuss' nitroglycerin experiments, KKK adventures; a stalled car, a stuck car, and a UFO all in one night; and – thousands of others

CORINNE ARMEL: When Mark Stafford and Peabody had a salt, sugar, and cream battle on the Vo-Tech bus.

RAY ARMEL: When Dennis Baer tripped over a chair and dropped his tray.

ANDY ASHE: When we enjoyed the art of SMIKE fighting.

DENNIS BAER: When Ray Armel dropped his lunch tray on purpose and cut his hand.

LORI BALL: Our prize winning band which has shone its excellence so many times.

LINDA BAYUS: When nobody knew why King Tut had holes in his ears.

DIANA BECK: All the good times in our Vo-Tech classes.

DEBBIE BELLUCCI: When I took the Fifth Amendment, and Mr. Switzer gave me three days.

MIKE BERNOSKI: When I kicked my first field goal and extra point against Lakeview, my last high school football game.

DENISE BIDEAUX: Band trips, football games (broken down trucks and rain), wrestling matches and all the work, metal shop and the guys in 9 BD, and every day after school.

LINDA BISBEE: When Miss Fuller tripped over the outlet in shorthand and we all laughed after she said, "I tripped, didn't I?".

JEFF BLAKESLEE: When Mark Stafford couldn't start his car and tried to fix it when all he had to do was put it in park.

JEFF BLOSS: When lunches were 45¢ and almost worth it.

CRAIG BOGDA: When we soaped Newman's windows.

CINDY BOYLAN: All the good times Craig and I had in school.

DON BOYLAN: When I fought with Mr. Leslie in study hall and got kicked out.

LARRY BROWN: When they started calling me "Twinkle Toes".

JIM BUFALINO: When Jim Nuss and I exploded our first vile of nitroglycerin in the biology lab.

TERRY BURGER: The Pitchfork, friends, KKK, and Chem. Study films.

JOHN BURNS: When we tried to water our plants in biology class with sulfuric acid.

JIM BUTLER: When I took Kim Stafford to the dance and fun times playing football for CHS.

MARK CHANEY: When we were tied with the county champs . . . then we kicked off.

TIM CHRISTIE: When the "Dynamic Duo" teamed up for the second time.

DEBBIE CLOSKY: All the good times I've had in school and all the really great people I've gotten to know. I will always treasure my memories and friends. I will always remember my high school years for they are years that you can only live once.

LARRY COLVIN: When I stabbed Mr. Bloss' apple tree three times with a pencil and received three whacks for it.

JENNIE CONFER: The fun times I've had in lunch, the activities and clubs I've been in, the people in my classes, and my restroom friends; but the people I'll never forget are Mr. Putney, Mrs. Nicolls, Mr. Marvin, and Mr. Dailey.

KAREN CORNELIUS: When Mr. Rowland had ants in the back of his room.

ANN CROWL: When I did all kinds of crazy things like placing little signs on a certain teacher, and later he walked down the hall after class with these little signs on. (Caution: Live Bacteria!).

KIM CZARNECKI: The fearless five of the "Blue Deluxe", notes with Turk in math, "toasty buns", and all of the great times with my friends at CHS.

LAURIE DANIELS: All the fun I have had with all of my friends at CHS.

DAVE DEVORE: All the good times we had playing cards in study hall.

TERESA DUDA: When Max Ferris was put in the snow bank by some of the Vo-Tech students.

KAY DUNTON: When I finally graduate from CHS to start a new life.

BILL FAULKNER: When I got beat up by Mr. Brown for something I didn't do, and when I was sent down to the office four times in two periods.

BECKY FERRY: The fun times Jennie and I had a Government and Consumer Economics.

BOB FLYNN: Mrs. King's windows.

JAMEY GAGE: When I broke three beakers in one week in chemistry.

JOE GEISER: When I hit the high school with my car.

BILLY GLASSER: Always having good friends in class and making a mess in Home Ec class.

SUE GLENN: Terry cloth bath robes, purple mice, "Is your pizza hot or is mine cold?", people who make lousy spies, CHS, our fine feathered electronic teacher, and many friends.

CHERYL GRINNELL: During my first basketball game that I played in, I made a foul shot at the end of the game to win it.

DON GRINNELL: When we used to have eraser battles in math class.

ERIC GUERREIN: Playing the cowbell in the band, getting whacked in French, Grandma Brown's beans, losing weight, November 10, 1977, and all my friends.

BRENDA HANDEL: All the fun times in high school . . . basketball games, dances, parties, and very special people.

VALERIE HANKS: When Mr. Grimm told me that Ken would never go with me, and to this day I am still proving him wrong.

STEVE HART: Senior skip day, all 29 of them, especially the day Larry, Dave, and I went canoeing down French Creek. We ended up losing the canoe, and Dave.

LISA HAYES: When Mark picked the book up off the floor in the library, "size-wow" fat attacks, "in-cognito", the Blue Deluxe, thirteen inches, electronics, "ya dang sow!", and all my fantastic friends at CHS.

LOIS HAYES: All the happy times I have had in high school, and I thank Roger mostly for this happiness.

JEFF HOLDEN: Great friends and high times.

ROGER HORNAMAN: Hiding erasers in Mrs. Flynn's class.

CHRIS HUGHES: Very little.

DAVE HUMES: Mr. Dailey's famous words (fiddley-whad-diddley).

ANNA JOHNSTON: When we were moving things back and forth preparing for the big move from Fairview and were thinking how we were sure moving to the boonies. Now as I think of it there is no other place I've rather be because of the peaceful surroundings that we found here. I'm glad that we moved and hope to remember this town always.

ROBIN KENDRICK: When we had a non-party for Mrs. Beard.

ROCKY KIMMY: All the times at the movies.

STEVE LABANOWSKI: The fun times I had in Mr. Marvin's math class.

JOE LEDRICK: When I exclaimed "Jenny" in our senior class play.

DAN LEWIS: The big water battles in Mr. Lindenmoyer's class.

CHRIS LONG: When a volleyball hit me in the face in gym class.

LINDA LOOMIS: I remember, I just can't remember what I was going to remember.

DAVID LYONS: Good friends, good times, and Lowenbrau.

PAM MAY: Sixth grade parties, air raids, water battles, class plays, beach parties, fake boutonnieres, and flower child.

CAROL McDUFF: All the good times with the "Guys" sitting in the parking lot listening to Nazareth and telling each other what we hoped to do after school.

BOB MERRITT: When Karen and Bryan had a door crushing experience.

PATTY MICHALSKI: All the fun times I had at CHS.

BRYAN MIKLOVIC: The bitter struggle with Mr. Varrato so we wouldn't have to do those useless book reports.

KIM MITCHELL: Mike B. trying to fly in Mrs. Flynn's class, Lorie A. and I both being "pregnant" in ninth grade, Jeff H. tripping me in the hall, certain band trips, selling empty pizza boxes, "Big Yellow", good times in the "Vega", Carter's finger, and of course being diviant.

BARB NEWARK: Kindergarten circuses, black eyes, sixth grade parties, air raids, surprise parties, fire drills, flower children, chaperons, band trips, water bottle battles, class football games, and "Grease" rides.

ANDY NEWELL: When Ross fell in the creek looking for a frog.

KATHY NEWMAN: All the fun times we had on the band trips and the early morning phone calls at Niagara Falls.

JEFF NOLAN: When three people mysteriously took the screws out of Mr. Leslie's bulletin board and it fell down two periods later.

JIM NUSS: The light shows in the Audi.

CINDY PARKIN: When I entertained René's first date, Mike, at the Valentines' Dance because she was too shy.

JOHN PENDER: When we soaped Newman's windows.

KATHY PERKINS: When we had the whipped cream and ketchup battles in the cafeteria.

JEANIE PETERS: When Mr. Welker kicked the garbage can at our math class (When was that?).

RICK PETERS: The many pleasant trips to the office.

PEGGY PETERSON: When Mr. Grimm let a cat in the window. That is probably the nicest thing he has ever done.

CINDY POTTS: When Reneé said she could change Cindy's tire in 15 minutes, but it took an hour and 10 minutes just to get the nuts off.

LORI POWELL: When I spiked a ball and it accidentally hit Mr. Adair.

LYNNETTE PRUSIA: When Mrs. McAtee cut my shoe strings.

ANGELA PUDE: The wrestling match in which I got my nickname "Meatloaf".

STEVE REAGLES: When Dave Ross and I went golfing and he fell in the creek trying to catch a frog.

ALL REIBEL: The KKK and hunting the good 'ole scums in Marcy Park.

JULIE RENNE: All the great times in the flying Blue Deluxe and Mr. Depressed, and a very unusual cast party; but most of all I remember the friends I never knew I had until my senior year.

JOANNE REYNOLDS: When I was late for school every morning.

PAULA RILEY: All the funny and crazy things that happened on the Vo-Tech bus.

JEFF RINGER: My Antarctic kangaroo report, air raids in French class, fruit battles in health, and everything I ever learned in eighth grade math.

DAVID ROSS: When Steve Reagles was elected grub of the year in 12-VT.

LINDA ROUDYBUSH: Air raids, "Puttis" yelling contests, drawing pigs, Niagara Falls and other band trips, water bottle battles, class plays, "Grease", Peninsula parties, "Kay-hey", "Keep your eyes on your fries", November 10, 1977, and all the good times.

CATHY ROWAN: All the great parties in my Ford, my best friend Lori, and the search for the eternal high.

PAULA SAEGER: When Lori called a certain teacher a fairy and was sent out in the hall.

DAN SANNER: Lark.

JOE SCHMIDT: All the fun I've had here and hope someone else has the chance to have fun, too.

DAVE SHEARER: All the fun art classes and all the cookies I did in the school parking lot.

MARILYN SHORTS: When I plugged in my typewriter and it blew up.

LINDA SHULL: When Brenda Kasbee bought me a box of "Twinkies" for my birthday.

LORI SMITH: My best friend Cathy and all the good times we had in her Red Light Special otherwise known as the Silver Bomb.

RENEÉ SPAID: Cindy Parkin and Cindy Potts hitting face first in a mud puddle while playing soccer.

MARK STAFFORD: When we won a football game. "Yea!"

JIM TAU: When Jenny Angelo tried to poison the whole school by burning sulfur dioxide.

MARK TAUTIN: When I was riding to Vo-Tech with Karen on February 7, and we rolled the jeep.

CINDY TOMKO: All my experiences at CHS and how much I learned about the real world.

RICK TUCCI: All the times I skipped out of school a half day and never got caught.

SUE TUCCI: When Marilyn and I went to Erie in an old beat up car and it broke down. We ended up going 20 m.p.h. on the interstate in the fast lane. It took us 2 ½ hours to get home.

RANDY TUCKER: The Key Club Volleyball Marathon and passing out in the "hole" every four hours.

CHERIE VOEGELE: All the trouble I got in during my past years.

KIM VOLTZ: All the good times I've had at CHS thanks to Mr. Campbell and my best friend, Sue, who helped me make them good times.

FRANK WATKINS: When Miss Fuller saw Nick's purse smoking and sent her to the office.

RON WEIDNER: When cafeteria lunches were edible and cost only 45¢.

SUE WHEELER: All of the long talks with Mr. Campbell and him helping Kim and I through all of our problems with school. Also to Mr. Rowland: Never make promises you can't keep.

LAURA WHITBECK: Lemon Pledge, getting sent to the office for throwing chalk. "Hey, Wally, where's the beer?", air raids, hiding in Loma Jean's closet, and almost getting caught when Carla and I searched the women's faculty lounge.

KAREN WILCOX: All the unofficial half days that came about in my senior year when I went to Saegertown.

DONNIE WOLFE: When I wrecked the "66".

SCOTT WOLFE: All the muddy football games that we used to play on Sunday afternoons.

DALE ZIRKLE: When I had a rough teacher. He thought he was tough but I showed him my stuff.

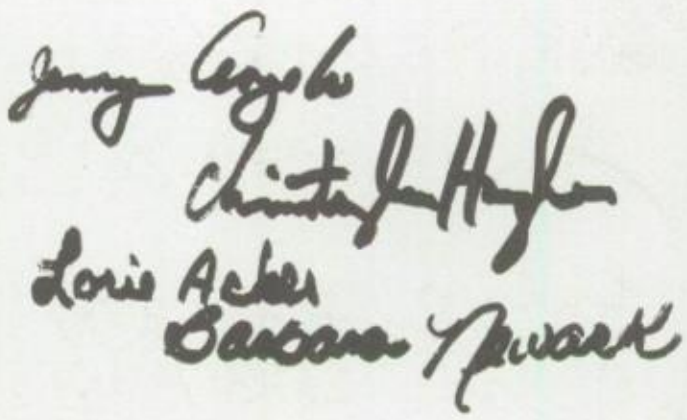
On this day of January 30, 1979, the following yearbook staff members would like to extend the best of luck to the last CSHS class to graduate during the decade of the 70's – the Class of 1979.



Frances,
To a really nice girl. I'm glad that you are my best friend. We have had alot of fun together in the last year. You really are a good kid even though you are unbearable most of the time. Don't forget french class and lunch and all the boredom we had to suffer in there. Have a great summer and stay out of trouble.
your friend always,
Dan

Hi Mom,

I'm sorry that this message is late in coming but I've had quite a busy week. Hope you and Dad and Tom are doing good. Say hi to Dad and Tom for me. Hey Mom I'm really going to miss summer and you guys. I'm really glad that we could have this year so that we learned lessons and made friends. I hope you have a nice summer and Tom. Good luck in everything you do.

I love you,

Lisa

Frances,
WELL!! This year is Finally over. We sure did have a Hell of a lot of work, but it was fun, too. If I ever did or said anything that offended you, I was probably kidding. I hope we can have a lot of fun next year and I can't wait until we go to Harrisburg. Good luck & have fun in the future

Mark "SI"

Fran,
To a really nice & funny girl!!! Good luck with the rest of your life. Remember all the good times we've had in Home Room.
